Multicultural Youth (MY) Pathways

MY Pathways program works with young people from migrant, refugee and asylum seeker backgrounds who are disengaged, or at risk of disengagement, with the community, education and employment and/or are displaying anti-social behaviour. The MY Pathways program is an early intervention program that works with at risk clients through case management and group work, facilitating targeted interventions based on the participants own goals.

The program is designed to support young people from migrant backgrounds to thrive in the local community and to facilitate community safety goals around social cohesion. Participants referred into the program will undergo an intake and assessment and if suitable will receive wrap around intensive support.

Eligibility: Young people between 14-25 yrs. from multicultural backgrounds, including young people born in Australia and whose parents arrived as migrants, refugee or asylum seekers.

Migrant Information and Referral Service (MIRS) – Youth

MIRS provides support to young people from 15-25 years old who have arrived independently as international students or who are dependants of Family and Skilled Migrant or International Student Visa holders. MYT provides case management, information and referrals for participants referred into the program.

MIRS Youth referrals can help with:

- Social participation
- Study support and pathways options
- Health and wellbeing
- Family issues
- Employment
- Other issues

Eligibility: 15-25 years old who have arrived independently as international students or who are dependants of Skilled Migrant Visa holders.
