

Championing Diversity in Sports and Recreation

Championing Diversity and inclusion in Sport and Recreation, presented by Multicultural Youth Tasmania, will provide front line staff and volunteers in the sport and recreation sector with practical advice and tools to foster a socially inclusive and diverse sports sector.

Presenters include the MYT Peer worker, who have a lived experience of migrating to Australia. Participants can expect an interactive workshop, with exploration and discussion.

The workshop covers:

- The demographics of multicultural youth in Tasmania
- Addressing barriers to engagement and strategies to support inclusiveness in your sporting club or organisation.

Who should attend this training?

Sporting and recreation clubs and organisations.

Duration: 2 hours

Contact: youth@mrctas.org.au or (03) 6221 0999 to book free training for your organisation. We will come to you or can host you at an MRC Tas office.

